Condition Notes

The coins display varying grades of circulation wear consistent with their age and usage. The Kennedy half dollars and Roosevelt dime show minimal wear with good luster retention, while earlier coins including the Barber dime and Standing Liberty quarter show moderate circulation wear with some details softened. Several coins exhibit natural toning, particularly noticeable on the Washington quarter and Walking Liberty half dollar. The blue cardboard presentation case shows minor edge wear and light rubbing to corners, but remains structurally sound with intact green interior. The certificate shows slight age-related yellowing but remains clear and legible. Refer to the pictures and in-person inspection for condition.
