LOT 62 - Stauer Moonphase Chronograph Watch with Box and Papers

Description

Gold-tone Stauer Chronograph Watch with Moon Phase Complication and Full Set

Stauer Historical Reproduction chronograph timepiece featuring multiple complications, genuine leather strap, and complete with original box and documentation. Circa 1990s-2000s.

This vintage Stauer piece showcases gold-plated brass casing with exhibition caseback revealing the mechanical movement. The white dial presents Roman numeral hour markers and multiple complications including day/date, month, and moon phase indicators with distinctive blued steel hands. Features genuine crocodile-embossed leather strap in cognac brown with original Stauer signed buckle.

Complete full set includes original presentation box, authenticity cards, and documentation. Watch is in functional condition with 5ATM water resistance rating. Movement appears to be a quality automatic mechanism with visible rotor through display back.

The leather strap shows moderate wear and patina consistent with age, including some cracking and discoloration. Minor scratches on case and crystal as expected from normal use. Movement appears clean with no visible damage, though service history is unknown.
