

Sale Name: 14th Annual Montana Spring Auction

LOT 480 - Premium Collection of Polished Agate Slices

Description

Superior collection of polished agate slices in varying tones and patterns presented in a vintage wooden display box with black tourmaline accents.

This premium assemblage features approximately 12-15 expertly cut and polished agate specimens showcasing remarkable natural patterning and coloration. The collection includes several outstanding examples: a large slate-blue agate slice with distinctive white banding, a translucent lavender agate with delicate dendritic inclusions, a substantial gray-blue agate with subtle striation patterns, and several smaller specimens displaying exceptional clarity and color variation. The assortment is complemented by small black tourmaline crystal specimens strategically placed among the polished slices. The collection is presented in a rustic wooden display box that enhances the aesthetic appeal of these naturally formed specimens.
